VETERINARY SURGEONS

Dear Client,

It is with great regret that we have to inform you that as from 19/10/19, Gibson and Jones Veterinary Surgeons will no longer be in a position to deliver an out of hours emergency service from either our Llanelli or Gowerton surgeries.

This decision has not been taken lightly, as you will be aware we have maintained this service for a period significantly greater than those of our local colleagues.

These changes have been forced upon us due to a shortage of qualified Veterinary Surgeons prepared to work in South Wales.

As a result of this our out of hours service has become the responsibility of only two veterinary surgeons making their life quality untenable.

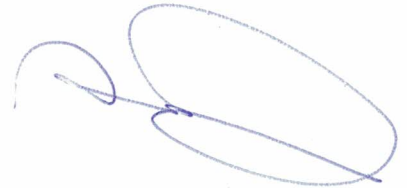

We will still continue to provide an emergency service to all clients attending our surgeries during routine opening times, which are stated below, moreover admitted patients will continue to be hospitalised and treated at their surgery of admission and their owners continuously informed of their status.

Future out of hour emergencies (i.e. those occurring after 11am on Saturday until 8am on Monday morning and between 6.30pm and 8am on weekdays) will now become the responsibility of Vets Now based in Swansea. Their telephone number will be given directly on the practice answerphone during these times.
